R Squared Properties, Inc. was formed in 2002 to build quality homes that use the finest materials. We develop long-lasting relationships with our sub-contractors who treat each R Squared home as though it were their own. R Squared is a spec and custom homebuilder; building value into every home. You can pick from one of my carefully designed plans or work with my home designer to cater to your specific needs. Regardless of where R Squared builds your home, you can be assured it will be done with "Integrity, Pride and Craftsmanship."
